

Luctons Close, Epping Gate, Loughton

£1,750 Per month | EPC: B

Nestled in the sought-after area of Luctons Close, Epping Gate, Loughton, this charming property offers a delightful blend of modern living and convenience. With one well-appointed bedroom and a stylish bathroom, this home is perfect for individuals or couples seeking a comfortable retreat.

The property boasts a spacious reception room that invites natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. A standout feature is the lovely balcony, providing a perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee or unwind in the evening while taking in the views of the surrounding area.

Modern throughout, this residence has been thoughtfully designed to meet contemporary standards, ensuring a comfortable lifestyle. Additionally, the property benefits from lift access, making it easily accessible for all.

Conveniently located, this home is just a short distance from both Loughton and Debden stations, offering excellent transport links for commuters. Whether you are looking to explore the vibrant local amenities or enjoy the tranquility of nearby green spaces, this property is ideally situated to cater to your needs.

In summary, this property with land presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a modern home in a desirable location. Don't miss the chance to make this delightful residence your own.

